Small Doses

Italy is quieting down and will not start a rough house.

President Wilson's batting average in the League of Nations is still 1000.

It is no surprise that Mexico is opposed to anything that looks like peace.

If the Italians don't behave themselves they will soon be called Dagoes again.

An old bum employed to sort magazines in Salvation headquarters in San Francisco came across a magazine 25 years old containing a story he had written and been paid $500 dollars for. Liquor had brought him down.

The color called "Magenta" is named after the battle of Magenta, which was fought in the year of the discovery of the color.

Another battle has given a word to the English language "Waterloo" meaning an overwhelming defeat.

Taxi Strikes Carriage.

Wednesday evening about 8:30 o'clock, a Ford taxi driven by Whalen Jones, colored, struck the rear of a carriage in which Mrs. Kate Smith, her daughter, Miss Stella Smith, and Mrs. Joe McAllister and baby were riding. All were considerably bruised, and Miss Smith is suffering from a fractured ankle as a result.

The police took charge of the taxi and an investigation of the blame attached to the driver followed, which resulted in the taxi-driver paying for the damage done the carriage, which was badly damaged.

BATTLE TANK FROM FRANCE WAS SEEN HERE WEDNESDAY

SPENT HALF A DAY IN THE CITY AND STIRRING VICTORY LOAN SPEECHES WERE MADE FROM IT

THIS IS A REAL BATTLE TANK

The battle tank used by the government in the Victory Loan Campaign arrived here Wednesday at 3 p. m. and was met at the I. C. depot by a committee and at once began its parade of the streets. At the courthouse speeches were made from the top of the tank by Chairman R. C. Ware of the Committee, Col. E. B. Bassett, Rev. Everett Smith and Pvt. E. J. Lawrence of the tank's personnel.

It then paraded the streets followed by an enthusiastic crowd, its camouflaged iron sides creating much interest. The tank appeared just as it had been used in battle.

At night, in spite of the rain, a crowd assembled and speaking was had in the Tabernacle. The orators were C. R. Clark, John Stites, R. C. Ware, W. O. Soyars and 1st Lieut. C. R. Born of the tank personnel. At the conclusion of the addresses, signal rockets, such as were used in the service, were sent up.

The tank left Thursday morning for Guthrie, and thence to Clarksville. It will make several towns in this vicinity before the end of the drive for the Victory Loan.

The personnel who accompanied the tank were 1st Lieut. C. R. Born, Signal Corps, U. S. A., Cpl. W. P. Maloney, Pvt. E. J. Lawrence and B. Guent, of the Tank Corps, and Mr. S. G. Langston, Division Passenger agent of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas line, in charge of transportation.

Music was furnished for the occasion by Lebecheur's band and by the Metropolitan carnival band, which was gratuitously placed at the disposal of the local committee by Mgr. Barefield.

CARNIVAL GOING TRENTON TO FULL SPEED

Fine Weather Latter Half of Week Attracts Large Crowds to Show Ground. Success Assured.

The weather for the latter half of the week has been the ideal carnival style, as the larger crowds out to see the shows, will testify. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday threatened a disastrous week for the show people, on account of the rain. This is being made up for now, for those held indoors by the dampness have surged forth to partake of that carnival atmosphere which beckons to old and young alike.

The Barefield shows are receiving numerous compliments for their cleanliness and variety of attractions, 15 in all, from which the carnival goer may derive wholesome pleasure.

Today is the last of their stay here and a record-breaking attendance is expected this evening and tonight.

Purely Personal

Judge C. H. Bush returned from Murray Thursday and will open court at Eddyville Monday.

Judge Polk Cansler has gone to Enid, Okla., to visit his son, Charles Cansler, for several months.

The condition of Mrs. Frank Rives has continued so critical from erysipelas that her brothers, C. G. McDaniel, of Louisville, and Dr. R. F. McDaniel, now in army work at Newport News, were summoned this week. Dr. McDaniel arrived on an early train yesterday morning. Mrs. Rives' condition yesterday afternoon showed no improvement. She is very ill.

Costing $25,000 By Private and Voluntary Subscriptions—$18,000 Already Paid.

The people of Trenton started out a few days ago to raise $25,000 for a new public school building by private subscriptions and up to yesterday had raised $18,000. Judge M. M. Graves, who was in the city yesterday, said there was no doubt that the full amount would be subscribed, as the people of Trenton were determined to have a modern and up-to-date school building.

The method of building is without bonds or taxation is without a precedent among the small towns of the state, but Trenton is only small in population.

HORSE KNOCKS GIRL DOWN

In Runaway at Carnival Grounds—Print Of Hoof Left On Her Stomach.

Thursday afternoon a horse belonging to Ed C. Gray, ran over and stepped on little Desma Morris, 10-year-old daughter of Mr. Theo. Morris, proprietor of the shooting gallery on Virginia street.

The horse which appeared to be a very vicious animal, had been left unhitched, inside the barrier to the carnival grounds by Jim Campbell, a colored man. The horse suddenly started to run down the main entrance to the grounds, and here knocked down little Desma Morris, one of the horses' hoofs striking her in the stomach and cutting her slightly.

It is impossible to ascertain the actual extent of the injury yet, although the little girl appeared to be improving yesterday evening. The print of the hoof could be distinguished in the child's flesh for hours after the accident.

AMERICAN LEGION MAY 6

MEETING AT AVALON TUESDAY NIGHT OF MEN WHO WERE IN THE SERVICE.

DELEGATE IS TO BE CHOSEN

Christian County To Furnish One And Davies County Has Elected One.

The meeting of the American Legion will be held in St. Louis May 8-9-10. This bare announcement in itself would mean nothing to the people at large, for very few know what the American Legion is, what its purpose is or who composes it. But when these questions are answered, it becomes a living chain, which binds every American home into closer union and a greater brotherhood.

Its prime object in having an existence is to maintain the national honor and to combat that underground encroachment against our very national life—to combat the great unrest which is spreading over our country from across the seas. At present the American Legion has no definite being—it is but a giant propaganda. A propaganda by Americanism and uprightness.

Under the leadership of high officials, some of whom are members of the cabinet, and with the aid and advice of the commanding officers of the Army, Navy and the Marine Corps, the idea of forming a national League of all the men and boys who served our country in the world war was inaugurated. The name "American Legion" was adopted and active steps were taken to organize nationally.

The crowning feature of the united efforts of these men will be the great convention held at St. Louis on May 8, 9 and 10, when an organization will be perfected which shall have authority to act.

Every district in every State in the Union is organizing. Delegates are being chosen from among the returned fighters to represent their people in the Convention. Accordingly, a meeting of every man in Christian county, who served in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Aviation Corps, is called for Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock. Every soldier, sailor and airman in our county should be present to select one delegate to the National Convention, which is to create a union which shall bind all those who followed the flag in our greatest crisis, more closely together for the welfare of our State and Country.

COL. DENHARDT TO SPEAK

Will Be Here Next Monday In the Interest of His Candidacy.

Col. H. H. Denhardt, of Bowling Green, who entered the race for the Democratic nomination for Governor, upon his return from services overseas, will speak in this city next Monday, May 5, at the courthouse in the interest of his candidacy. The speaking will begin at 1:30 p. m. The public generally invited.

POSTPONED

The Athenaeum Banquet Has Been Put Off For Two Weeks.

Owing to the illness of Mrs. Frank Rives—her husband being one of the speakers on the program—the banquet of the Athenaeum scheduled for Thursday night was postponed. It does not suit the hotel to have it next week and the new date will probably be May 15th.

COME GET YOURS

The Red Cross wants 300 women to take one petticoat apiece to their homes and make them. This method is suggested by Miss Lida Hafford, Superintendent of Chapter Production of Kentucky, as the best method of finishing our allotment on time. Please do your part as soon as possible. Take one garment. More if possible.

DEFEAT OF BOMB PLOT WAS BLOW TO MAY DAY CONSPIRACY

RIOTING IN CLEVELAND, CHICAGO AND NEW YORK WAS MARKED WITH COMPARATIVE LITTLE BLOODSHED

AN ELABORATE HOME WEDDING

Miss Betsy Massie Ware Became the Bride of Mr. Robert Hall Adams Wednesday Evening.

A most attractive spring wedding was that of Miss Betsy Massie Ware and Mr. Robert Hall Adams, of New York, Wednesday evening, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Trice, on South Main street.

The elegant home was a veritable bower of spring blossoms. The bridal party under a canopy of orange blossoms completed the beautiful picture. Previous to the entrance of the bridal party, Miss Annie Virginia Trice sang most artistically, "Summer," by Ronald and "Possession" by Leiter.

Promptly at 8:30 o'clock, as Miss Mable Moore began the wedding march, the two little flower girls dressed in white, entered, carrying baskets of pink sweet peas. They were followed by the groom and his best man, Mr. Hugh Adams, of Chicago. Next came Mrs. John L. Harvey, matron of honor. She wore a lovely gown of pink georgette and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses.

Then came the bride in a beautiful white satin gown with a court train. She was veiled in a lovely bridal veil of tulle, caught at the brow with a circlet of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

The bridal party was met at the beautiful bower altar of roses and orange blossoms, by the Rev. Dr. Leonard W. Doolan, of the First Baptist Church, who performed the wedding ceremony using the beautiful and impressive ring service.

After the ceremony, the party repaired to the dining room, which was gorgeously decorated. A string of smilax hung from the ceiling, tied with a large tulle bow under the chandelier. As it fell it divided and extended to the corners of the table, where each strand was fastened with a bunch of lilies.

In the center of the table was a large mirror, surrounded with lilies of the valley. From the center of the mirror rose a silver vase holding Easter lilies. Candles were arranged artistically around the table.

The ices and cakes were in white and green, while the cakes were decorated in orange blossoms.

The groom is a prosperous young business man of New York City, recently discharged from the army after having seen service in France. He formerly lived at Houston, Texas, and the wedding is the culmination of a love affair that began several years ago while the bride was visiting in Houston.

The bride is a daughter of the late J. D. Ware, and one of Hopkinsville's loveliest and most charming girls. She has but recently returned from a year's service in the canteen and hospital work of the army, located in Washington. She is a representative of several of Hopkinsville's most prominent families and has been a reigning belle since her graduation from an Eastern college a few years ago. She has a host of warm friends whose good wishes attend her.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams left at 10 o'clock for Chicago and other points. Only relatives and most intimate friends were present. The out-of-town guests were Mrs. Hume Lusk, of Nashville; Mr. and Mrs. Hume Adams, of Chicago and Mr. Marion Boone, of Lexington.

Wedding Bells

Mr. Hubert Lewis and Miss Ruby Mart, both of Christian county, were married Wednesday at the courthouse by Judge Green Champ-plain.

Bright-Watson.

Yesterday morning Mr. James P. Bright and Miss Joe Nell Watson were united in marriage by Judge Champ-plain. The groom is a resident of Mr. Vernon, Ill., and the bride formerly resided in Webster county. Both have been married before.

New York, May 2.—Comparatively little bloodshed marked radical celebrations of International Labor Day in the United States.

The most serious rioting occurred in Cleveland where one man was killed and more than 100 persons, including 11 policemen, were injured.

Next in importance was a battle between the police and paraders in Boston during which four persons were shot and many arrests made.

A riot call was sounded in Chicago when radicals attempted to hold a parade which had been forbidden.

WHOLESALE MAILING OF INFERNAL MACHINES

Washington, May 2.—Belief was expressed by postmaster officials that most, if not all of the bombs mailed from New York as a part of an anarchist May-day, plot against the lives of public men had been found.

Checking of reports from the postal inspectors in various parts of the country, showed only one infernal machine, addressed to Senator Leo S. Overman of South Carolina, got through the past 24 hours although press dispatches said two bombs, addressed to Senator William H. King, of Utah and Frank K. Nebeker, an attorney, had been intercepted in Salt Lake City postoffice. The Department had received no report from Salt Lake City. Two more of the infernal machines had been sent to the Gimbel Brothers' store, New York, for lack of postage.

The alertness of postal clerks at Salisbury, N. C., Senator Overman's home town, prevented the delivery of the machine to the senator. The motive was thought to be the fact that as chairman of the senate committee investigating anti-American activities and disloyal propaganda, Senator Overman had won the enmity of the radical element.

As acting chairman of the judiciary committee of the senate Senator Overman had charge of Espionage act and many other measures dealing with law enforcement during the war. He also is chairman of a special senate committee investigating pro-German and other radical propaganda.

Unusual precautions were taken in Washington to protect cabinet members and court officials from bomb attacks. There were similar precautions in other cities and meanwhile the entire postal service was working and watching to pick up stray infernal machines, lying about like so many floating mines, but apparently dangerous only to those persons with curiosity enough to break the seals.

Reports from inspectors at New York and Atlanta gave no information not already revealed in press dispatches.

All divisional inspectors, it was stated, had been instructed to forward prompt reports of bomb finds and while some may have been delayed, there was a more hopeful feeling that the danger was over and that any bombs still in the mails would be intercepted.

One of the first things Postmaster-General Burleson did was to write Postmaster Patten of New York, suggesting that suitable action be taken to reward Charles Kaplan, a postoffice clerk, whose quick judgment and good sense resulted in the discovery of sixteen bombs.

The police today received information from the naval intelligence office that the bombs sent in the mails to prominent persons, showed a startling resemblance in operation and principle to the type of german mines found by the navy off the coast.

Agents of the department of justice expressed their belief that the infernal machines were of German origin and possibly imported from Germany. They said the anarchists in this country could not obtain the fulminate of mercury used in the bombs.

Fine For Going To Church.

After a thorough investigation of the flu ban case of George Tidwell, which was appealed from the county Court, Judge Bush rendered an opinion in the Circuit Court which sustained the lower court in a fine of $50 imposed for attending church in defiance of a board of health order at Murray. This being a test case, several other defendants accepted fines.

While watching a parade pass, a waiter in New York fell from the roof of Delmonico's and killed a woman on the sidewalk below. He escaped with a fractured skull.

212 SOUTH MAIN STREET.

The cables were returned to their owners at midnight last night. Approval by the President of Postmaster General Burleson's recommendations that the telegraph and telephone lines be returned as soon as necessary legislation be enacted was announced. In the pending legal controversy before the supreme court to restrain the postmaster general from increasing intrastate telephone and telegraph rates, permission was given by the court to hear arguments on appeal from Kansas and Illinois next Monday when arguments will be heard also on cases from South Dakota and Massachusetts.

James B. Aswell, a Democratic Representative, is the man who introduced the resolution that resulted in the passing of the bill which gives to the government control of the wires and cables. Aswell said he understood the rates were to be lowered by the United States and was amazed when a twenty per cent increase was ordered. He is no doubt waiting patiently for Congress to meet and afford him an opportunity to set himself right.

William J. Bryan is a candidate for the office of moderator of the Presbyterian Church of the United States according to an announcement received by J. B. Wootan of New York, publicity director of the Presbyterian church. The moderator, the announcement said, is to be chosen during the sessions of the church's general assembly at St. Louis, May 15-23.

The youngest married couple in the State of Kansas, if not in the country, is the record claimed at Cottonwoods Falls, Kan., for Harry C. Brown and his bride, Alveta Reber, of Emporia. The combined age of the two is less than 32 years. Harry reached his sixteenth birthday a few days before he married. His bride is less than sixteen.

Neither the New Testament nor his mother's picture warded off the Hun bullet that pierced the heart of Private Alexander Patterson, of Sharon, Pa. Among the personal effects received by the family are a copy of the New Testament given by the Y. M. C. A. overseas, a photograph of his mother and a fountain pen, all damaged by one bullet.

Postmaster General Burleson is acting wisely in turning the wires loose. They were getting both troublesome and unprofitable under government operation, while many difficulties in the courts are resisting the abrogation of the contracts contained in franchises with telephone companies.

Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, who brought down 26 German airplanes, dividing with Lufberry, who was killed near the close of the war, the honor of being America's greatest air fighter, will lecture at the Tabernacle in this city on May 9.

Bishop Embree E. Hoss, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, died at his home at Muskogee, Okla., following a paralytic stroke two months ago. He was born in Jonesboro, Tenn., April 14, 1849.

Former Premier Herbert Asquith is tipped as the probable ambassador from England to the United States, as successor to the Earl of Reading.

Samuel Gompers, labor leader, injured in a street car collision, is recovering from his injuries.

Price Smashing.
Tremendous price smashings took place Tuesday on the Chicago Board of Trade. Holders of grain and provisions competed on a big scale in efforts to unload on a declining market.

A long-threatened free movement of corn and hogs from rural sources was largely responsible for the general rush to sell.

Breaks as shown after mid-day amounted to 8 1-4c a bushel of corn, and $1.30 a barrel on pork.

May delivery of corn showed the greatest weakness, dropping to $1.75% as against $1.65% to $1.66 at yesterday's finish. July delivery, at $1.75, was off more than 13c from yesterday's level.

HIGHER WAGES
SHORTER HOURS

New Express Regulation Effecting
Delivery of Packages.

Effective May 1st, 1919, and retroactive to Jan. 1st, 1919. By order of Walker D. Hines, Director General of Railroads, all employees of the American Railway Express Co. will receive an increase in salary of $25.00 per month, based on the salaries paid employees holding similar positions, as of Jan. 1st, 1918. In many instances this increase has already been granted employees, either in part or in whole, since Jan. 1st, 1918.

In addition all station employees of the Express Co. will be from May 1st placed on the 8-hour day working schedule, strictly.

Just what effect this will have on the express service is a problem which will have to be solved by experience and future developments. It may possibly result in slight curtailments of the service along certain lines and at some stations.

Insofar as the local situation is concerned, the following rules and regulations will prevail on and after May 1st, 1919:

The express office at 9th and Virginia streets, will open at 8 o'clock a. m. and close at 5 o'clock p. m. No shipments will be received or delivered at this office before 8 o'clock a. m. or after 5 o'clock p. m.

No requests to call for shipments, out bound, will be accepted with the understanding or agreement that the call is to be made at any specified time, nor that such shipments are to be picked up and forwarded on any particular train.

All shipments delivered to the express offices by the shippers to be forwarded on a special train, must be delivered to the express offices not later than thirty minutes before the scheduled time of departure of the train specified.

No wagon service, either pick up or delivery, will be performed before 7 o'clock a. m., nor after 5 o'clock p. m.

The real necessity of these restrictions will be readily seen, when it is understood and taken into consideration, that six clerks and drivers heretofore working a total of 70 hours each working day, must now perform the same services, working a total of 48 hours. A difference of 22 hours in the working time of the six men engaged each working day.

FINISH TOGETHER.

Still they serve—those khaki ranks—
Though guns no longer roar;
Still along the Rhine's grim banks
They guard a foreign shore;
Still with undiminished zeal
They watch the vanquished Hun.
Let us serve the common weal
Until the Job is Done.

REFEREE SAVES RITCHIE
FROM A KNOCKOUT

Newark, N. J., April 29.—Willie Ritchie of San Francisco was saved by the referee from a knock-out at the hands of Benny Leonard, lightweight champion, 40 seconds before the end of the eighth and final round of a bout here tonight. Ritchie was on the floor when the match was stopped. Ritchie was formerly lightweight champion. He lost his title to Freddie Welsh at London several years ago. He has just been discharged from army service and apparently started too high in his comeback effort.

South Bend, Ind., April, 28.—Frankie Mason outfought and out-slugged Johnny Ertle in every one of the ten rounds which they fought at Oliver theatre here tonight. Mason landed ten blows for every one he received. The Fort Wayne boy was superior in every respect to Ertle although he gave away seven pounds.

LOOK FOR THE NAME.NOT A RICH MAN'S WAR AND A POOR
MAN'S FIGHT AT ALL

THOSE WHO ARE GAINING MOST
ARE THE PEOPLE OF SMALL MEANS.

IN FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

Wealthy Give Up Profits in Taxes
Which Do Not Hit the Other Classes.

Buyers of Government securities and experts who have studied the effect of the war on the financial situation in the United States are pointing out that poor people in the United States are gaining most from the effects of the war.

The rich manufacturer is watching his profits go in the shape of war taxes and war profits. Congress has seen to that. The people with the smaller incomes are losing proportionately less through taxation. Furthermore, the money they have invested and will invest in government securities and Liberty bonds will make them collectively, the heaviest creditors in the future.

If it were the other way round, if the rich were financing this war by the buying of bonds and the people with the smaller incomes were doing their war financing in the shape of taxes, the reverse would be true. If that were the situation, then the poor of the next generation would be taxed to pay the interest and the principal of the loans that were held by the rich. This is what happened after the Civil War. As it is now the poor man with a few Liberty Bonds is in far different circumstances to what that same poor man would have been after the Civil War.

Emphatically, this last war was not "a rich man's war and a poor man's fight!" It was everybody's fight as we all know who watched the workings of the draft law, but it will be the poor man's profit if the poor man will just have sense enough to hang on to his Liberty Bonds and get more of them at every opportunity.

That is why the poor man who is wise in his day and generation will buy as many Fifth Liberty Loan notes (short-term bonds) as he possibly can and hang on to them. He will buy as an investment, knowing that the rich man who sought profit from the war is seeing those profits go in the shape of heavy war profits taxation, and that the rich man's money in this taxation is being used to pay the interest on the bonds held by the poor man.

FARMERS TIRE OF
"NATION'S BACKBONE"
PHRASE AND YET—

The Words Have Peculiar Significance in Victory Loan Campaign.

Farmers have been told so often that they are the backbone of the nation's prosperity that they sometimes grow tired of hearing the phrase repeated. But this year the words have more than ordinary significance.

It costs money to raise and transport the produce of American fields and farms. The farmer made money; he received higher prices for his crops than had ever been paid before in the history of the country.

It is true that the war has been gloriously ended. But the job has not been ended.

When the American puts his hand to the plow he does not look back. When he puts his name on a note he makes good. It is the American way. And nobody doubts that the American people will make good on the Victory Liberty Loan. In entering the war they put their name to a promissory note to their government which is about to fall due.

These words are just a reminder of obligations. The farmer has prospered, in some cases even beyond his dreams. And prosperity is coming to him in the future in even greater measure. The world must come to America for food. The war is over, but the job is not. America will finish it in true American 100 per cent style.

ARE PAYABLE IN GOLD

Canada and the United States are the only nations which state in their official prospectuses that their war loans are payable in gold. The law authorizing the Liberty loans of the United States state that the bonds are payable in gold of the present standard of value. Obligations of the United States may be issued under Act of Congress, payable in foreign currency, but obligation so issued will not be payable also in United States gold coin.

JOBS FOR THE FIGHTERS

During the last six months of 1918 the United States Employment Service found places for 2,386,490 men and women at the cost of $1.33 per placement. Since the war began this branch of the government has found places for 100,000 applicants a week. In addition to its 750 regular offices it has set up 1,900 bureaus for returning soldiers and sailors. The Victory Loan will help this movement.

HIT BY LIGHTNING
BUT WILL LIVE

Henshaw Man Tells of Trip Made

While He Was Believed to Be Dead.

Morganfield, Ky., April 29.—Although lightning tore out a piece of his hair, melted his watch, practically tore his clothing from his body, burned a hole in each foot just back of the junction of the big and second toes and rendered him unconscious, Marsh Henshaw, of Henshaw, in the southern part of Union county is expected to live.

Not only is he expected to live but an hour after the crash he was telling the neighbors all about it. When he was picked up he was unconscious and apparently remained that way while he was being taken to the home of his mother, Mrs. Kate Henshaw, but to the surprise of everyone, Henshaw proceeded to relate the incidents of the trip as soon as he regained consciousness.

The lightning played some queer tricks with Henshaw, apparently it struck him on the left side of the head first, for there is a big patch of hair and scalp missing. It then ran down his body, ripping his coat, shirt and underwear to bits. It struck his watch and melted all the gold. The ring that held it was melted into a small ball and was found inside his pocket.

FOUR SISTERS

Teaching the Same Day in the City
Schools Last Week.

Hopkinsville has a family of seven sisters, all of who are teachers or have been teachers in the city and county schools. One day recently the unusual record was made of four of the sisters teaching in the city schools the same day. Miss Gladys Bartley is now and has been for several years a teacher of the fourth grade in West Side School. Her sister, Miss Otey Bartley, a former teacher in the county schools, has been substituting for some time for Miss Bertha Thomas, who teaches the third grade of the same school.

Mrs. George N. Duffer, a former teacher in the High School, was substituting for Miss Mary Walker in the eighth grade of the Belmont school. On the day above mentioned Miss Ella Shadoin, of the third Belmont grade, was absent and Miss Juanita Bartley, a county teacher, substituted for her.

Still another sister is teaching in Oklahoma and two others have held government positions in Washington, since last summer and have not been teaching this year. There are nine sisters in the family, the two younger ones still in school. They are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Bartley.

Next Sunday, May 4, will be go to Sunday School Day in Kentucky.

KEPT HER AWAKE

The Terrible Pains in Back and Sides. Cardui Gave Relief.

Marksville, La.—Mrs. Alice Johnson, of this place, writes: "For one year I suffered with an awful misery in my back and sides. My left side was hurting me all the time. The misery was something awful.

I could not do anything, not even sleep at night. It kept me awake most of the night... I took different medicines, but nothing did me any good or relieved me until I took Cardui...

I was not able to do any of my work for one year and I got worse all the time, was confined to my bed off and on. I got so bad with my back that when I stooped down I was not able to straighten up again... I decided I would try Cardui... By time I had taken the entire bottle I was feeling pretty good and could straighten up and my pains were nearly all gone.

I shall always praise Cardui. I continued taking it until I was strong and well." If you suffer from pains due to female complaints, Cardui may be just what you need. Thousands of women who once suffered in this way now praise Cardui for their present good health. Give it a trial. NC-133

"Indestructible Union."

The expression "an indestructible union of indestructible states" was used by Salmon P. Chase in a decision rendered by him when chief justice of the Supreme court. The case came up from Texas and involved the right of secession and the question of whether Texas was ever out of the Union. The court declared that the Union was intended to be perpetual, and in emphasizing the idea the chief justice said: "The Constitution, in all of its provisions, looks to an indestructible Union, composed of indestructible states."

GOLDEN EGGS.

(Youth's Companion.)

The value of the eggs and poultry produced in the United States is now $750,000,000, or more than that of all the gold, silver and diamonds produced in a year in the whole world. There are about three hens to a person, and each hen lays an average of eighty eggs a year. Farmers' flocks consist on the average of only about forty birds, but even at that they contribute notably to good living on the farm. Of all sad words of tongue or pen the saddest are these: "I have no hen."

Scientific Opinion.

Scientists are now urging that all kissing between the sexes should be conducted through sterilized gauze over the lips of each of the kissers. We call to mind the days of long ago when germs, bacilla, and other little devils that are now supposed to infect every one who moves, breathes and has existence were unknown. The kisses of then were intoxicating, but did not as a general thing result in anything serious to osculators. We imagine that the modern kiss through gauze would have mighty little kick to it.—Madisonville Hustler.

NEW FIRM ON INSURANCE

Agency of Late H. D. Wallace Taken Over By Wallace, Street & Clardy.

The insurance operated by the late H. D. Wallace up to the time of his death, has been sold to a firm composed of Miss Nellie Wallace, niece of the late proprietor and his assistant for years, Mr. Ben T. Street, of Elkton, and Thos. F. Clardy, who has but recently moved to the city from Howell. Mr. Street will also move here as soon as he can get a house.

The firm name will be Wallace, Street & Clardy and Miss Wallace will have charge of the office as heretofore. The other partners will be actively identified with the business. Mr. Street is a prominent business man of Elkton who is well known here, while Mr. Clardy is one of the county's most substantial and highly respected citizens. The firm will be a strong one. It will handle all lines of insurance including the agency of the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co.

Madisonville, Ky., May 2.—David Fitzsimmons, wealthy farmer of near Dawson Springs, who inflicted knife wounds on his former son-in-law, Roy McCarroll last Saturday that later resulted in McCarroll's death, was acquitted at his examining trial, which was held before Judge Crick today. Many witnesses were introduced and the case consumed most of the day. Evidence tended to show the Fitzsimmons had acted in self-defense.

Miss Susie Gilmour and Mr. Rufus Brain Joined in Marriage Here Last Thursday.

A beautiful home wedding was that of Mr. Rufus Brain, of Hopkinsville, and Miss Susie Gilmour, of this city, at the home of the bride's father, M. M. Gilmour, last Thursday evening at 8:30 o'clock. The Rev. B. M. Currie of Hopkinsville, performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Gilmour, of this city. She is well known and very popular here.

The bridegroom is in the employ of the Illinois Central Railroad company, and is in the passenger service between Nashville and St. Louis.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple left for Earlington where they took a train for St. Louis. After spending a few days in St. Louis it was their intention to go to California where they will spend about six weeks on their honeymoon. —Dawson Springs Progress.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

A FAIR EXCHANGE

By DOROTHY D. MUIR.

It has never been quite decided whether Bob was wakeful that night or whether the burglar, being an inexperienced burglar, made too much noise, but everybody does agree that though the burglary, itself, was unsuccessful, the affair turned out in a way that pleased all concerned, and, much better, to be sure, than had been expected. The whole thing began when Bob awoke with an awful start to discover that there was surely a burglar in his apartment. Now Bob, having his own ideas on the management of burglars, soon had his very bright, hitherto unused, and, he feared, unloaded revolver, cocked before him, and stood ready to draw the curtains separating his room from the small living room adjoining it.

"Glad you seem to be enjoying yourself," This from Bob, as he stood, rather dramatically, between the drawn portieres, the revolver leveled at the intruder.

"Oh!" A very startled and almost feminine exclamation from the burglar.

"Ah!" A very admiring and extremely amazed exclamation from Bob, as the burglar, or perhaps we should say burglars, faced him. Bob knew how to manage some species of burglar, or thought he did, but this particular specimen baffled him.

"Please, I'm sorry!" She raised a pathetic face to his—an extremely pretty face, with very large brown eyes, and very red lips. For a moment the lips trembled and strange to say it seemed as though she was struggling to suppress laughter rather than tears.

"Hysterical," concluded Bob, though it was hard to explain the odd twinkle which he felt sure he could detect in her eyes.

"Please don't send for the police," she said.

"Oh, don't explain. I think I understand—you were poor and discouraged, and tempted."

"Yes! that was the reason. I—I was so poor and—tired. But now will you let me go?"

"Of course, in a moment, but won't you let me be of assistance to you?" He disappeared into his room, and when he returned held out to her a bill of as large a denomination as he had felt he could afford.

"Please accept it, and try not to steal again."

He felt that he was handling the situation admirably. He possessed no great amount of wealth, but what he did have he would use to help the unfortunate, and, incidentally, the beautiful.

"Thank you," replied the fair burglar, after a brief moment of hesitation, and she took the proffered bill. "You are very good." The sentence was left unfinished as she buried her head in her arms.

"Absolutely overcome," thought Bob, with much sympathy. Some time later, when she seemed to have recovered and had promised to lead a worthier life, he led her to the door, and sent her away, then returned to his disturbed slumber, inwardly regretting that a girl, with such a lovely face, should be a mere thief of the slums. All that night, and all the next day he thought of her. He was disgusted with himself for not getting her address and managing to see more of her if only to be of pecuniary assistance—and then the unexpected happened. A letter came from Betty. Betty was Bob's sister, who lived some distance away with the rest of his family, but who was in the same town, with friends, at the present time, on a visit. As he opened the envelope, a rather crumpled greenback fluttered out of it and as it was a bill of the same amount that he had made a gift of the night before, he hastened to read sister Betty's letter for an explanation.

Dear Bobbie—I ran, I am returning the enclosed, with much praise for your generosity and many thanks from my friend, Margaret Allan, a perfect dream of a girl, whose acquaintance you have made under strange circumstances. They have a perfectly delightful club over here and last night they initiated Margaret—(I suggested the initiation as you probably suspect, for you remember I had a key to your apartments)—and that's why she played burglar, Bobbie, dear.

"Hope you won't be cross! Margaret was a good sport, anyway, for it was a daring thing to do! And she carried it off fine, even if you did discover her. I will tell you that she was very favorably impressed, if you won't get too conceited, and, of course, I can arrange a meeting if you wish. But oh, Bobby, what will happen to you if I introduce you to Margaret? Love, from Betty."

It hardly needs to be said that, at his eager request, Betty soon arranged for the meeting, and Margaret, with her irresistible smile and altogether charming manner, was even more wonderful than he had pictured she would be.

The acquaintance ripened into friendship, and the friendship grew deeper and stronger, until one day Bob said, very tenderly, to Margaret: "Don't pretend you're a lady, Margaret, for you're only a little burglar after all. Margaret, dear, do you know you have stolen my heart?"

But Margaret, her eyes beaming with love light, answered: "Oh, no, Bobbie, dear. I have not stolen your heart. It is only a fair exchange."

This Bird Can Sew.

The "tailor bird" of India is an excellent seamstress. When this bird decides to build a nest it chooses a leaf that suits its purpose and perforates the edges with its beak. Then it takes a long piece of grass fiber and sews the edges together, making a pocket. If the leaf is not large enough, it is pieced out with another leaf. At the end of the seam the bird makes a knot in the thread to prevent unraveling. This pocket is not the bird's home, however, but only the beginning of it. The nest is made within the pocket. The end of a slender branch is always selected, and as the leaf retains its natural color the home of the bird is concealed very effectively from animals and other enemies of birds. —People's Home Journal.

Makers of Heroes.

Epiphany says, "Times of heroism are generally times of terror." They show true character. It seems that human nature needs a test to show the stuff it's made of. Spirits of heroic mold often lie dormant until aroused by a mighty challenge. It seems as though there is some militarism of the soul that waits the life call and the measure of the drum beat. Not fear but lack of occasion keeps the latent might unconscious of itself. But let the need call and the sleeping giant rouses and strides forward to the dismay of petty puppets of annoyance.

Embarrassing.

At a place of worship in Bedfordshire, England, a member of the congregation went to sleep during the sermon and slipped off the seat just as the hymn, "Christians, seek not yet repose," was announced.

Disinclined to Matrimony.

Among the non-Burmese tribes that live in Burma, women are not thought much of. The Banyak or Banyangs, for instance, will not marry unless they are ordered to do so, and the prospective bridegroom often has to be dragged to the bride's house. Is left, however, to the Was to reach the depths of ungallantry, for with them marriage is a question of sale or exchange. A prepossessing bride is estimated at a few buffaloes, who is ill-favored may be had in exchange for a pair of fowls, or even a dog.

Difficulty of Fashion.

Before the clothes reformers abolish men's vests they should consider well the matter of providing storage room for watches, matches, eyeglasses, lead pencils, business cards, cigars, cigarettes and a few odds and ends, to say nothing of the safety deposit pocket inside the garment where the rural visitor keeps his currency. —Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

Just Think of It!

Think of the endless litigation which will probably be started when the meek inherit the earth.

Queen of Qualities.

Amiability cannot atone for lack of force. Girls who are smiling and agreeable, but limp and inert in the presence of difficulties, do not command respect. The queen quality is force, and the other graces of character are the maids-in-waiting. One who cannot hammer her way through difficulties falls below the measure of womanhood, no matter how great her personal charms. —Pennsylvania Grit.

CATECHISM GIVES CLEARER IDEA OF THE VICTORY LOAN

WHY IT IS NECESSARY AND HOW IT WILL BE FLOATED SET FORTH.

LAST OF LIBERTY ISSUES

Banks Cannot Handle It Alone, and Everybody Must Lend a Helping Hand.

Maybe the following catechism will help to set you right on some of the questions surrounding the Fifth, the Victory Loan, the last of the historic Liberty Bond issues.

Q. Is this to be the last of the Liberty Loans?

A. Yes; on the authority of no less a person than the Secretary of the Treasury, Carter Glass, who has made that announcement.

Q. Is there a possibility that the Government's mind may be changed and that the Loan will not be floated, as announced?

A. There is no such possibility. Congress has authorized the Loan, it has been formally announced and it will be offered to the people of the United States and all others who wish to buy it.

Q. The war is over, peace is being made; what is the use of another Loan for several billion dollars?

A. Last fall we raised the Fourth Loan in a time of war. The proceeds from the Fourth Loan have been used up in the extraordinary expenditures that accompany demobilization. The Government must have billions more in order to maintain our overseas forces, take care of the expenses of demobilization, bring the soldiers home and carry out the necessary reconstruction plans.

Q. After War Expenses.

Q. If the United States has very little money in its treasury and now needs a loan, how are we paying for these after-the-war expenses?

A. This is being done for the most part with money that was borrowed from the banks at the rate of $600,000,000 every two weeks. We have been issuing to the banks what were called short-term anticipation certificates in return for the money, and these must be taken up and paid off. A goodly part of the Victory Loan will be used in paying up this short-term indebtedness.

Q. Well, if the banks are willing to advance the money why not let them continue to do so?

A. For the very good reason that in order to continue to extend credit to the businesses of the country, both big and little, the banks must get back this money when it falls due.

other wise credits would freeze up in this country and a serious situation would be here. The money they are lending amounts to 20 per cent of their entire resources. You can readily see that the banks' resources, all of them, would soon be exhausted at the present rate.

Q. Is the Government going to try to get us to take this loan on a patriotic or a commercial basis?

A. Why not on both? There ought to be, and there is, patriotism enough in America to "make one bite" of the Fifth Liberty Loan. Secretary of the Treasury Glass says the patriotism of the Americans can be relied upon to send the "Victory Loan" over the top with a rush. However, it is a particularly attractive loan as an investment. It ought to be eagerly taken up on that very basis alone, to say nothing of the patriotism that demands that it be taken.

AWARD ADMIRAL MEDAL

Honor Bestowed For Navy's Leadership in Liberty Loan Work

The first of the treasury department special medals for distinguished service in connection with the Liberty Loans has been presented by Secretary of the Treasury Glass to Rear Admiral Thomas J. Cowie, U. S. N., whose leadership was responsible for the exceptional records made by the navy in the Third and Fourth Liberty Loans. The first three of these medals, which have been made from captured German guns, will go to President Wilson, former Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, and Secretary of the Treasury Glass. These three have not yet been presented. The first actual presentation was that made to Admiral Cowie.

In accepting the honor, Admiral Cowie, in a few words, made it clear that he appreciated the fact that the medal was conferred on him as representative of the navy which had, by its stirring and patriotic example, done so much for the success of the Liberty Loans. He said, "Not to me individually, but as the representative of the navy which did as bravely in the battle of bonds as it did on the high seas, does this honor come; and it is in behalf of that navy which led the nation over the top in the Third and Fourth Liberty Loans and which is sure to be in the forefront in the coming Victory Liberty Loan, that I am proud to accept this symbol of the navy's triumph."

Anatomical Query.
Harry was fond of drawing, especially pictures of animals. One day he was trying to draw a horse and got along nicely until he came to the legs. After several unsuccessful attempts he asked: "How do a horse's legs begin, I wonder?"

The scientists have demonstrated that it is really possible to eliminate the bray from the mule, and, though it would distress the little boy next door, how we wish they would now turn their attention to a rattlesnake express cart.—Grand Rapids Press.

WHY FARMER AND CITY MAN ARE SO MUCH AT VARIANCE

WITH GUARANTEED PRICE FOR WHEAT, AGRICULTURIST IS AT HEIGHT OF PROSPERITY.

JUDGED BY INDIVIDUALS

Ruralist and Urbanite Owe Same Duty to Support the Victory Liberty Loan.

They are telling this story in a corn belt section. Maybe it is true and maybe—well, here is the story:

There are a lot of Washington counties and maybe this was a Washington County farmer. He had not bought a dime's worth of W. S. S., nor a Liberty Bond. He paid no attention to the Red Cross, the Y. M. C. A. or the other war drives. He came into a store where he had long been a customer. He was better dressed than usual.

"Well," said the merchant, "I guess you had a big Christmas out home?"
"No," said the farmer, "I'm just gloomy. We didn't. The war and the high price of things and all sort of made things gloomy."

The merchant looked him over in astonishment.

"Why, that seems funny. It looks like all the men I know that you were least handicapped. Weren't both your boys exempted on account of agricultural work? Aren't you getting more for wheat and cattle and hogs and corn than you ever got? You are getting 75 cents for eggs and 78 cents for butter. Where have you any right to kick? Surely not at buying Liberty Bonds?"

"Didn't buy any Liberty Bonds," said the other. "I haven't been held up for any of these money-grabbing stunts. I simply stood out. Let the city folks that start these things take care of them. They've had the farmer by the throat for years. Now it is our turn. I am going to make hay while the sun continues to shine."

He was not a representative farmer. But, unfortunately, there are some farmers who try to keep up and feed fat an ancient grudge against fellow Americans, city folks of their own blood. Are these men farmers first and Americans last? They are refusing to see that their welfare is tied up with the rest of the nation.

Victory Loan Is the Thumb Issue

The thumb is not as graceful, uniform and regular as the four fingers—but the dependability and the indispensability of the thumb needs no argument or defense. The other fingers are, more or less, of a family likeness. The thumb has a form and a function of its own—and quite related to the fingers. One has noticed the pitiable efforts of a man who has lost his thumb when he tries to do the simplest things like writing or wielding a hammer or buttoning his collar. The thumb stands off to itself—but the four tapering fingers, either of which might be spared better than the thumb, call on the odd member of the group when there is clinching, grasping, hitting to be done.

All the four Liberty Loan campaigns have been more or less alike. The Fifth stands off to itself, in date and in setting and situation altogether. Though different from the others, this Fifth is the most important of all. It is the grasp effort, the clinch drive, the smashing blow. As the thumb encloses the other fingers of the first for the determined drive, so this inclusive campaign is to be the solidifying, the perfecting effort of financial America in its endeavor to put over the momentum of wonderful resources in the world-campaign for right and rights.

The other campaigns were alike in that the danger of results which might follow failure spurred to action; the inspiration of the hope of good results which would be sure to come with the success vitalized the campaign; the enthusiasm of the fevered period, the hands and the flags—all that made the first four efforts successes. The thumb drive is a cold-blooded business proposition. It means a loyalty of patriotism which dies down cheerfully and comes up with the money to pay for what he has already been obtained and enjoyed in considerable measure. It is the test drive; it is the real crux of the trial of American fealty; it will reveal the fine Americans who, having subscribed their money for hope or pledged their coin from fear, now plank down the dollars from honest conviction.

The thumb drive is going to be the biggest and the most American of them all.

Ode To a Mustache.
Sweet William is a luscious lad,
Of sun-kissed down is his mustache
And every time he grins a grin,
You wonder how they sprout such trash.

The strike epidemic threatens to invade Hopkinsville.

The small white boys who have been caddying on the country club golf links are refusing to work for the usual stipend of 25 cents an hour and are demanding higher wages.

Perhaps this is the first step in the organization of an international caddy labor union.

We are heartily ashamed of "that old thing," who suggested that the reason kissing games were no longer popular among young folks, was because the games were no longer necessary.

If the caddies' demands for higher wages are successful, the caddies and golfers may find it convenient to change places ere long.

During one of his philosophical soliloquies, Judge Green Champlin remarked the other day that of the 116 couples last year, and 38 this year that he had married, only two had gotten a divorce. In explanation the Judge intimated that he had tied the knots so tight, there were not enough lawyers in the county to undo them.

Frost Did Damage.

Early gardens, fruit and berries were very materially damaged by the frost of Saturday night. Beans and tomato plants were killed, potatoes were nipped and about half of the grape shoots were killed, which will shorten the crop. Peaches and other tree fruit protected by leaves do not appear to have been hurt much. Strawberries were injured some, but enough are left for a good crop.

Takes Former Church.

Eld. J. South Hawkins, after being discharged from the army has resumed his pastorate at the Christian church at Earlington, where he preached before going into the army. His reception at Earlington was a great ovation, and evidences the great appreciation of the people of that community.—Murray Times.

BRING YOUR OWN RECORDS

The Day of a Certain Talking Machine Playing on a Certain Record is Passed

The "Playerphone" is the latest invention in talking machines. Without special attachments it plays Edison, Columbia, Victor, Gennett, Paramount or any other record.

Requires No Special Attachment. This permits the owner of the Playerphone to buy any make of record that may appeal to him—and to buy it anywhere he wants to.

Friends visiting you, who own talking machines, can bring records of their favorite pieces, and in this way spend a more enjoyable day.

Hear all other machines—then come and compare them with the "Playerphone."

No metallic sound to mar the sweetness of the record.

The price on the "Playerphone" is fully 40 per cent less than on other machines.

KIRKWOOD, Ninth & Main Sts., is exclusive "Playerphone" agent.

LIEUT. OWEN CITY SCHOOLS TRUSTEES

Floyd Owen Commissioned Second Lieutenant Since His Return From Overseas.

Floyd Owen, who has recently returned to Hopkinsville from overseas service, has received a commission as second lieutenant of infantry, signed by Gen. John J. Pershing.

Lieut. Owen enlisted in the motor transportation corps, where he saw active service with the rank of sergeant. He was sent to an officers' training school while in France, but after the signing of the armistice on November 11th, all recommendations for commissions were temporarily held up.

These recommendations went through recently and Lieut. Owens was one of those to be commissioned, after a delay of several months.

Lieut. Owen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Owen, of this city.

TWELVE BUILDINGS AT DAWSON SPRINGS

It is reported that twelve buildings will be constructed at Dawson Springs on the federal sanitarium site, instead of one as has been the opinion of a great many people.

A supervising architect is expected to arrive in Dawson Springs Monday with a party of assistants and he will be stationed there permanently until the buildings are erected. Plans for all of the buildings have been completed.

It is not definitely known when Surgeon General Blue will arrive at Dawson Springs.

Construction of a road from Dawson Springs to the site of the sanitarium will begin soon.—Hustler.

The anarchists who sent out 16 bombs from New York on May Day were not sixteen to one men. All of the bombs were not mailed to one man.

The Tango.

The tango is a dance of Mexican origin, which is supposed to imitate the actions of the negroes. It has the same rhythm as the Spanish habanera, but is played much faster, and is worked up faster and faster, till it ends like the dances of the modern ballet dances. Sometimes it has five notes in the melody to four in the accompaniment, and vice versa and its peculiar harmonic progressions give it a weird fascination that has much to do with its popularity.

Optimistic Thought.

There can be no lasting concord between liberty and tyranny.

Concerning Patents.

The length of time it takes to obtain a patent depends partly on the nature of the application, that is, the thing to be patented, and partly on the skill with which the case is presented. There are forty distinct divisions in the patent office, each division having in charge a specific class or variety of work. Each application is examined in the order of filing and some of the divisions are considerably behind in their work. An application may be acted on promptly or only after weeks or months.

Plows Rough Lands.

A special type of plow for use in rough country, where labor is high and scarce, is known as the "stump-jump." This plow was invented and is used in western Australia, where the farm land is cluttered with roots and stumps.

Election Held Today For Both White And Colored Schools.

The regular annual election of school trustees for the City Public Schools and the Colored Graded Schools will be held today, with separate polls open at the city court room for the white schools and at the courthouse for the colored school.

The terms of H. H. Abernathy and A. W. Wood, of the white board, expire. No opposition to their re-election has been announced.

An election of two colored trustees will be held in the Circuit Court chamber, the terms of Ned Turner and Abe Holmes expiring. The candidates are Lewis Berry, U. S. Bacon, Jake Williams and W. A. McAdoo. The hours of election are 6 a. m. to 4 p. m.

TAKE RED CROSS WORK IN HOMES

Red Cross workers at the sewing rooms are so few it will be impossible to complete the quota in the allotted time by that means alone. Therefore by instruction by Miss Lida Hafford, superintendent of chapter production of Kentucky, everyone who can make even one garment, is urged to call and take home work. There are 500 garments to be completed by May 15. Miss Hafford, over long distance phone today, said that chapters much smaller than Christian county are making as many as 1500 garments. On account of the failure of this chapter to respond to the calls she is having a number of the garments which have been sent here sent to the Frankfort chapter. This does not look well after the record that has been made heretofore. We must rally to the work. It is imperative. Come and get your work. There must be an average of 60 garments a day completed. YOU MUST HELP REMEMBER IT IS YOUR RED CROSS.

Woman Kills Herself.

Mrs. Frank Cox, 27 years of age, living near Madisonville, committed suicide Thursday afternoon by blowing her brains out with a shot gun. Her husband was in the garden at the time and rushed to the house and found his wife on the floor dead.

Mrs. Cox suffered an attack of influenza several weeks ago, since which time she has been in very poor health.

OFFICERS AT CAMP TAYLOR

Men From Eight States To Be Sent To Summer School At Kentucky Camp.

Washington, April 29.—Plans for summer training camps for the reserve officers' training corps have been approved by the war department. Six cantonments will be used for this purpose, covering the entire country.

They will open June 21 and continue until August 2 for an intensive six weeks' course of instruction.

Camps designated areas are: Camp Deven, Mass., for units from Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island, New York and New Jersey; Camp Lee, Va., for units from Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware, Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia and Florida; CAMP TAYLOR, Ky., for units from Alabama, Tennessee, Kentucky, Mississippi, Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana and Oklahoma; Camp Custer, Mich., for units from Indiana, Ohio, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Illinois and Michigan; Camp Funston, Kansas, for units from Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Iowa, Nebraska, Wyoming, Colorado, Kansas and Missouri; Presidio, San Francisco, for units from California, Utah, Nevada, New Mexico, Washington, Oregon, Montana and Idaho.

The organization of the camps is under direction of Col. Elvid Hunt, of the general staff. The cantonments named have been designated because complete equipment and housing facilities for the students composing units of the training corps are available at those points.

MRS. HARDWICK BOMB VICTIM

Former Senator's Wife Gets An Infernal Machine Intended For Her Husband.

Atlanta, Ga., April 29.—Mrs. Thos. W. Hardwick, wife of former Senator Hardwick, of Georgia, was burned about the face and hands and a negro maid had both hands blown off by the explosion of a package received through the mails today and believed by Mr. Hardwick to have been an infernal machine.

The package, it was said by members of the family, was addressed to the old home of the former senator at Sandersville, Ga., and forwarded to the Hardwick home here.

It was said that the supposed bomb was enclosed in a package bearing the name of a large New York Department store, and contained a number of lead slugs in addition to the explosive.

Later it was learned that the wrapper of the package bore the inscription, "Gimbel Brothers, Thirty-second and Broadway. Samples," and was postmarked New York. Police officials recall that a bomb bearing a similar inscription was received yesterday at the office of Mayor Ole Hanson in Seattle, Wash.

They Never Get That Length.

A vegetarian whose family was out of town went to breakfast at a restaurant and took a seat next to a stranger. The vegetarian took occasion to advertise his creed by telling the stranger that the human diet should be strict vegetarian.

"But," said the stranger, "I seldom eat meat."

"You just now ordered eggs said the vegetarian. "An egg is practically meat, because it eventually becomes a bird."

"The kind of eggs I eat never become birds," answered the stranger. "Impossible," cried the vegetarian. "What kind of eggs do you eat?"

"Principally boiled eggs," said the stranger.—London Tit-Bits.

No Bolshevik.

They had been married three months and were having their first quarrel—which shows they were a remarkable couple.

"Evidently," she said icily, "you regret that you have married me. The step is not irrevocable, however. If you care to be released from your bonds"—

"Now," he interrupted, impatiently, "I'm no 90-day recruit. I enlisted for the term of the war."

She couldn't think of any retort, so she maintained a scornful silence.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Bugs Adjudged Insane.

Thomas H. Bugg, who recently became violently insane and murdered Mrs. Neil Alexander and burned the property of various other parties in Crittenden county, was tried by a jury in Judge Carl Henderson's court at Marion and adjudged a lunatic. He was conveyed to the State Hospital here for confinement and treatment.

Wait for the New Hudson Super-Six Here Soon—Price $1975

Prompt Deliveries Assured Early Buyers—It is a Perfected Development of the Car You Know So Well

A new Hudson Super-Six is coming.

It reveals how four years' experience with 60,000 cars has enabled Hudson engineers to free it from many of the annoyances regarded as inevitable to all cars. It embodies the qualities which men said would make it the greatest car known.

It Is Worth Waiting For

Production on large scale is now under way.

Dealers will have their demonstrating cars within a few days.

You must not fail to see the new Hudson Super-Six.

Think of the history of earlier models. They have made a place in every branch of motor car use that has not been matched.

The first Hudson Super-Six, four years ago, increased motor power by 72% without added weight. It retained all the simplicity of the six. It minimized vibration.

Proved In A Thousand Ways

You remember how endurance was proved. Nothing to equal Hudson Super-Six records of performance had ever been known. Most of those stand today as achievements that no other car has been able to match.

But one thing those feats did, you perhaps do not know. They showed ways for development of subsequent models that find their expression in the new car soon to be offered.

Such a car could not possibly have come from any other organization. It takes years of experience to learn and develop the qualities we now offer.

The same engineers responsible for the first Super-Six have watched it in its service for 60,000 users and now offer the new Super-Six as the expression of their greater knowledge.

Isn't such a car worth waiting for?

Watch the papers for the arrival of the new Super-Six, then go see it.

The New Price Is $1975

Hudson production will be twice as large this year as last. Because of that the new price for the 7-passenger phaeton will be $1975.

Without the experience we now have such a car would have been impossible at an earlier time, regardless of the price at which it sold.

Still, as you know, the Super-Six has always been one of the world's finest cars. You hear that on all sides. It has led all other fine cars in sales.

There have never been enough to equal the demand. A like condition must surely obtain this year.

But those who buy early will get early delivery. They have the records of every Hudson Super-Six as an assurance of its value.

If you are on the point of buying a new car, go or telephone to your dealer. Perhaps he can tell you where you may see the new Hudson Super-Six.

Equal Right, but No Favor.

"I suppose," said a lady to a conductor, "if I pay the fare for my dog he will be treated the same as other passengers, and be allowed to occupy a seat. Of course, madam," the conductor replied politely, "he will be treated the same as other passengers, and can occupy a seat, provided he does not put his feet on it!"

This Bird Can Sew.

The "tallor bird" of India is an excellent seamstress. When this bird decides to build a nest it chooses a leaf that suits its purpose and perforates the edges with its beak. Then it takes a long piece of grass fiber and sews the edges together, making a pocket. If the leaf is not large enough, it is placed out with another leaf. At the end of the seam the bird makes a knot in the thread to prevent unraveling. This pocket is not the bird's home, however, but only the beginning of it. The nest is made within the pocket. The end of a slender branch is always selected, and as the leaf retains its natural color the home of the bird is concealed very effectively from animals and other enemies of birds.—People's Home Journal.

Makers of Heroes.

Emerson says, "Times of heroism are generally times of terror." They show true character. It seems that human nature needs a test to show the stuff it's made of. Spirits of heroic mold often lie dormant until aroused by a mighty challenge. It seems as though there is some militarism of the soul that waits the life call and the measure of the drum beat. Not fear but lack of occasion keeps the latent might unconscious of itself. But let the need call and the sleeping giant rouses and strides frayward to the dismay of petty puppets of annoyance.

THE BARGAIN

—AND IT'S WELL WORTH
YOUR WHILE!

Through special arrangements with the manufacturers, and during this Bargain Week only, a beautiful, useful and substantial set of Cooking Ware will be given with every Majestic Range sold. This ware is good ware (not cheap ware)—it's worth a lot to you. Come and see for yourself.

And Remember---

The price of a Majestic Range this week will not be increased, and there will hardly be a great reduction for years to come, if ever, but there may be an increase soon.

TWO NEW AND IMPORTANT FEATURES

The Wonderful Unseen Riveting

Yes, it's rivet-tight, just like the old Majestic, but the rivets clinch inside of nicked parts, leaving nickel smooth as glass, and there are no big, bulky bolt-heads on the inside. And, remember, rivets hold tight; bolts with only one or two threads are bound to work loose and cause no end of trouble. The Majestic is smooth inside and outside—it's a striking beauty—more than skin deep.

If you haven't a MAJESTIC, avail yourself of this opportunity to get acquainted with this wonderful range—know the inside of ranges.

May 5th to 10th

To Be Truly Economical There Should
Be a Majestic in Your Kitchen

Economy is not merely spending the least money—buying a range at too low a price is indeed false economy.

The FIRST cost is not the only cost—the little additional first cost of a Majestic is nothing compared with its economy of fuel, durability and satisfactory service.

Nearly a million Majestic Ranges, now economically, scientifically and satisfactorily serving millions and millions of people, civilians and soldiers, is proof positive of their superiority over all others.

There is only one best. The public has judged. The Majestic is recognized as the standard of all ranges. The construction, material, workmanship and beauty of this wonderful range is unequalled, and it embodies important features possessed by no other range.

Your Opportunity is Here---

At our store—during our Majestic Bargain Week. It's your chance to get acquainted with real facts about ranges. We assure you it will be worth your while to investigate.

Oh, Joy! Top Needs No Blacking

A smooth highly polished cooking top, burnished blue, not only adds to the beauty of the Majestic, but absolutely eliminates the work, dirt and worry of trying to keep the range looking nice—just an occasional thin coat of paraffine retains its beautiful velvet blue color.

Penetrates Both Feet.

From here the lightning traveled down his legs, ripping his trousers and underwear. It then struck his hose supporters, tore these in two and ripped his socks. It cut his shoes almost to threads and then penetrated each foot, burning a fair sized hole.

Henshaw fell over unconscious and the four farm hands who were helping him roll logs, after they recovered from their slight shock, rushed to his assistance. They found him apparently unconscious, and obtaining a horse and buggy, placed him in it and rushed him to the home of his mother which was about a mile away.

Medical assistance was summoned from all directions and about five physicians including Dr. J. W. Conway of his city were on the scene in short order. To their surprise, Henshaw sat up and began relating all the details, covering even the period when he was believed dead.

Southern Baptist Convention.

The sixty-fourth session of the Southern Baptist Convention, will be held at Atlanta, Ga., beginning May 14. The opening sermon will be preached by the Rev. Dr. M. E. Dodd of Louisiana.

NAMES ADDED FOR RECORDS

Christian County Men In France Additional List.

The list of Christian county boys who have seen service overseas was printed some days ago. A number of names have been secured since and are appended below. There are others who have a place on this roll of honor which the historian would be glad to have that the list may be full and complete. Any corrections will also be welcome as the list must be exact in its final form.

Louis Tanner, tank service.
Louis Klien.
Clark Fuqua.
Captain Alvin Clark, Lieutenant in 3rd Kentucky, now with the army of occupation in Baden, Germany.
Hugh Nelson, volunteer in Engineering Corps.
Captain Stanley E. Stroube, Medical Corps.
S. J. Rollow, Jr., Trench Artillery.
Herbert L. Mockbee, overseas service from August, 1917 to March, 1919, on Toul, Argonne, Verdun and St. Mihiel fronts.
Lieut. Mills Campbell, transportation service.
Lieut. R. Herndon Waller, officers' school at Saumur.
Corporal Earl Broadus, Rainbow Division, volunteered at Dallas, Tex.
Fred O. Morris, Pembroke, entered service at Nashville, still in the service.
Chaplain Chas. L. Nourse, with army of occupation, Coblenz.
Wm. F. Weaver, Co. D, 3rd Ky., 149 Inf., transferred to 163 Inf.
1st Lieut. Henry L. Eager, 34th Infantry, 7th Division, now at Metz with army of occupation.
Charlie B. Long, Hdq. Co., 323 F. A. France.
J. Bertram Blakemore, army, of occupation.

Christian County Men in the Navy.

The following list of 75 names includes most of the Christian county men who served in the navy, or who entered for service during the war. Any other names will be welcome, also information as to whether these men saw active service or were in training. The blanks used for the records of the soldiers are also for the sailors and may be secured at the Carnegie Library from Mrs. Lipscomb or at the Red Cross Home Service Office from Mrs. Dagg as well as from several persons throughout the county whose names have been printed before.
The first 55 of these men were released by the draft records but volunteered at various times.

The Living Head of the Dead.
An aged colored woman attending the Liberty Girl show at the carnival exhibiting the living head of a girl, when told that she might ask the head any question she liked, interrogated as follows:
"Lawd sakes, chile, how long is you been dead, honey?"

LIEUT. H. A. LONG WRITES HOME

Still Stationed in a German Town in Prison Inspection Work.

Chemintz, April 7, 1919.
My dearest mother:
Another week has passed—and another week nearer. It has been a busy week as we have had a number of inspections and have been invited to quite a number of social functions. And yesterday there was a big bunch of mail for me. My mail is coming fine now—in less than a month—and I hope mine is reaching you in as good time.
I received your letters of March 2nd and March 11 and one from father dated March 15. So you see how quick my mail is coming. Will write you what I have been doing and then answer your letter later.
Did you realize, mother dear, that yesterday it was two years since war was declared. In some ways, it seems ages to me, for I consider it a wonderful two years, probably the most wonderful of my life. Of course it has been hard to be separated from home and loved ones, but I will be a much better man for those years of separation. I have learned more than ever before to appreciate my home, my people, and my country. I have been broadened in many ways. I have met, talked and lived with people of many nations; I have seen their customs, their method of living, and through conversation have learned their views and their thoughts. I feel that I am no longer an American only—but also a member of the great Brotherhood of Man. I think that all of us have learned that America can no more be isolated from the remainder of the world—but that she must take her proper place as a World Power. And at present she is the leader in everything—in religion, in commerce, in the money world—in all.
We are probably the only power in the world which has not been damaged by the war. We are richer by far in a national way than before the war.

On last Tuesday we had an inspection of the camp by several members of the Interallied Commission—Major Thornton of the British army and Major Sylvester of the American army. Both were very interesting officers and stated that we had the best prison camp in Germany.

On Tuesday night, we had the German commanding officer of the Prison Camp as our guest for dinner. He was a naval captain during the war and told us some very interesting facts concerning the German Navy. He stated that after the sea battle of Jutland in which the British navy was victorious, the German fleet realized it could never combat with the allied fleets and therefore never came out. It is certainly interesting to hear these different stories and get their different views of the war.

On Wednesday night we were invited into the city for dinner with a German we have met named Fritz Schubert. His wife had prepared a lovely dinner for us: Asparagus soup, beef steak with potatoes, peas, carrots, turnips and then fruit, cherries and pears, then pudding and then different kinds of cheese and coffee. Quite a nice dinner and served in such a lovely manner.

On Friday we had a visit from a Roumanian lieutenant, Lt. Stanesco who has been here searching the camp for Bessarabians, who are to be repatriated at once. He spoke French and German but not English, but of course, by speaking French and German we managed to get along with him all right.

Yesterday two Red Cross officers from the general depot at Berlin visited us. Capt. Muns and Capt. Pratt. They also state that our camp is one of the best they have seen.
And now your letters. Am glad that you all are well, but sorry to hear that there is so much flu in the city and county. I hope it will soon cease. You make me so anxious to see Baby Margaret. I want so much to see her before her cute baby-tricks are over. I am so glad you had such a nice time at the reception given the new Baptist Minister. I know you enjoyed it and wish I could have been there.

I hope that Mrs. Dabney will sometime hear something of Frank, but after such a long time it seems hardly possible. If I were still in France I might be able to learn something, but here it is impossible.

About my trip to Italy—it was news to me—I would like to go there, but Charles has never written to me about it. However, I hardly think there is a chance because I am coming home as soon as I can get away.

I do want to get home, mother dear, but I feel that with such wonderful opportunities, I can wait a few more months. The papers make conditions so much worse than they really are. The people do not need food—it is deplorable—but we have been treated most courteously all the time. Hope by this time father is well of his cold.

As far as my seeing any of my friends in Germany—that is an impossibility unless I go back to Coblenz on the territory West of the Rhine—occupied by the American army. You see in Germany proper there only only one hundred of us officers and five hundred enlisted men.

Well mother, dear, there is no more to tell you this time. I hope all of you are well. Lots of love for grandmother and grandfather and all the folk. For you and father a kiss and a hug around the neck and lots of love.
Your affectionate son,
HERSCHEL.

Woman's Missionary Union.
The Southern Baptist Convention will meet in Atlanta, Ga., May 13 to 19. The Woman's Missionary Union auxiliary to the convention, will convene in the same city on the same dates, with headquarters at the Piedmont hotel.

Mrs. W. C. James of Richmond, Va. president of the Woman's Missionary Union, will call the session to order. The District of Columbia and each of the seventeen states embraced in the Convention will be represented by a Vice-President and a number of delegates. Kentucky will be represented by Miss E. S. Broadus of Louisville, Vice-President, and twenty-five delegates from various parts of the state.

Many attractive features have been planned beside the regular sessions of the convention. Among these are the Luncheon to Baptist Women Missionaries, the W. M. U. sermon by Dr. Gambrel, of Texas, a meeting of secretaries and Field Workers, a Young Peoples' Meeting and the annual meeting of the Training School Alumnae.

A special and earnest call is being made for young women to attend the Young Peoples' meeting in Atlanta. Many are expected from each state.

A 17-year-old bank messenger boy carrying a satchel with checks totaling $6,000 was attacked by two robbers and shot one of them who fell and the other grabbed the satchel and escaped. The wounded man was captured.
